Since the Tory administration refuse to see the need for neighbourhood warden they are relying on you to do their work by reporting potholes set to <http://barnet.fixmystreet.com>
 If you do this and after 10 days nothing has happened let us know. The website asks you to pin point the pothole on a map.

CRICKLEWOOD ALCOHOL FREE ZONE UPDATE.

Many of you have been asking what has happened to the Cricklewood 'Alcohol Free Zone.' We can tell you that the proposal is now out for consultation. If you would like to comment contact us and we will pass it on.
 Councillor Monroe Palmer said, "We are jubilant that we have managed to get this ban underway."

GRANVILLE ROAD DEVELOPMENT

The new development in Granville Road is taking shape. It certainly takes the breath away. The orange clad contemporary design is eye-catching but perhaps for the wrong reasons. What do you think? Let Cllr Jack Cohen know.
 Jack, who is our representative on the planning committee says, "I voted against it in committee. I don't like it and all your Councillors agree that the parking needs to be sorted out."
 Cllr Susette Palmer commented, "I asked the officers about the ochre roof colour - they tell me it will tone down in time. I hope they are right."
